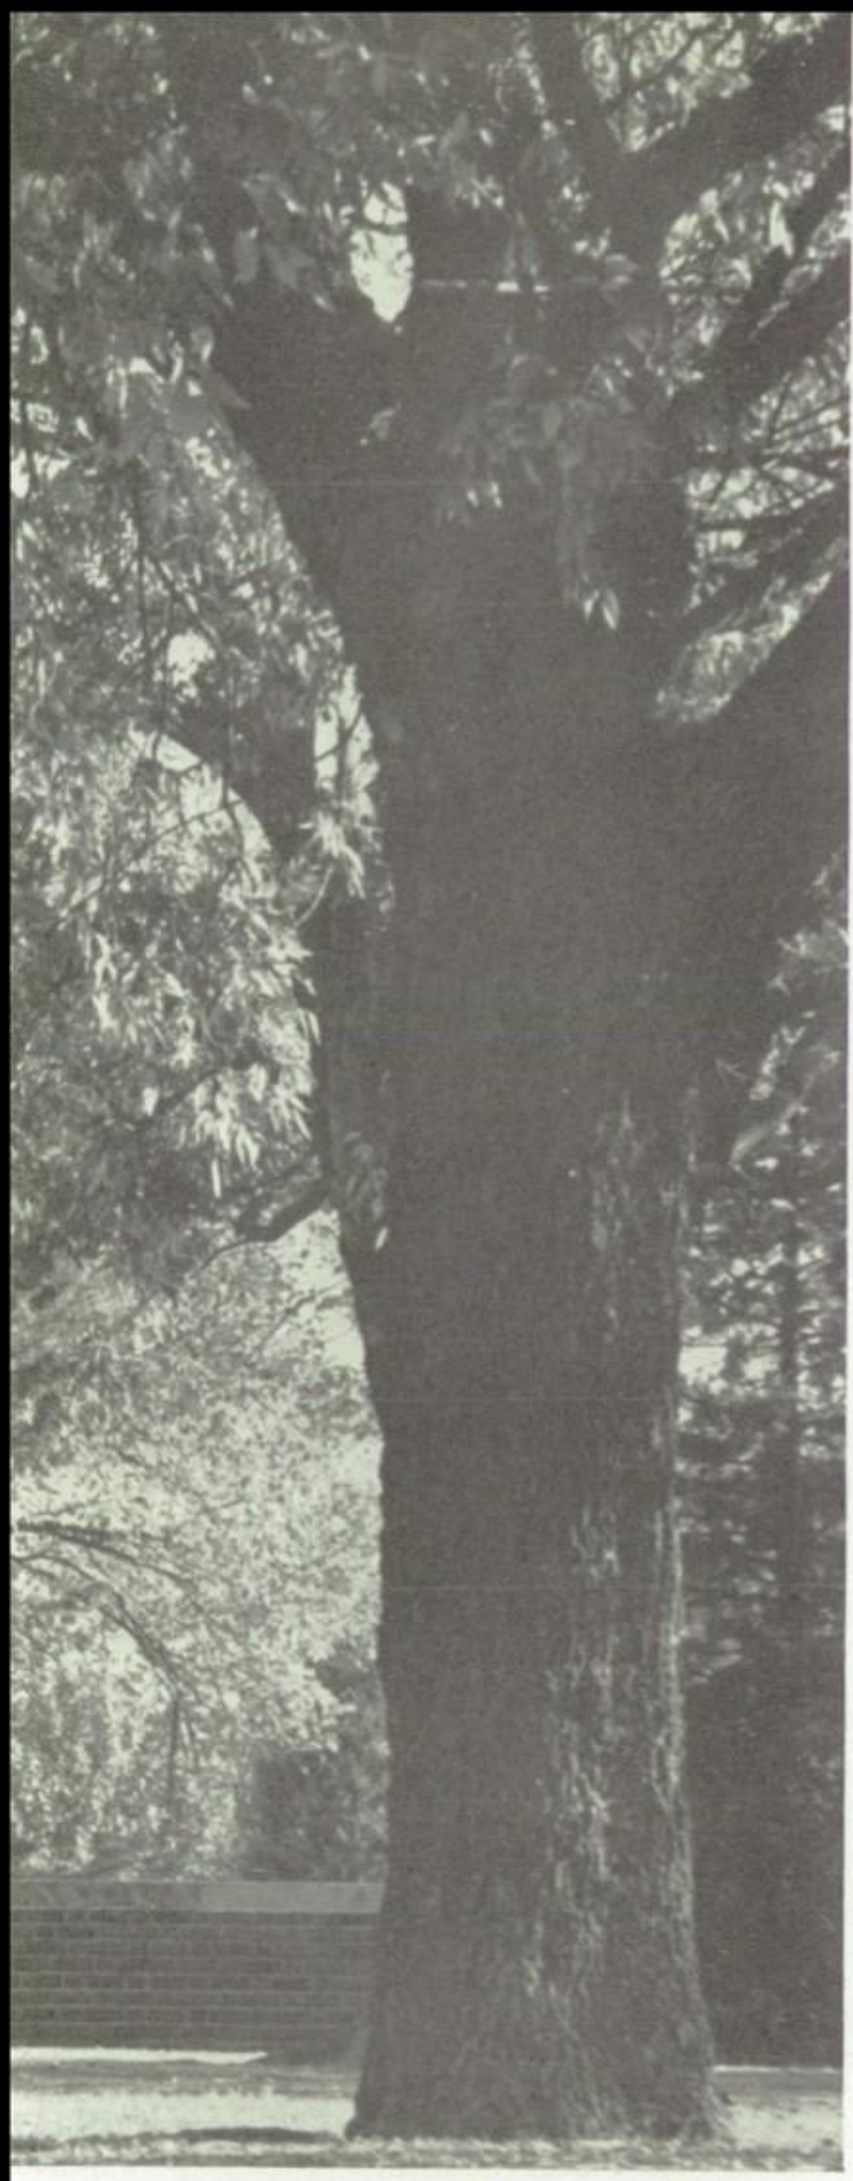
The Senior Class



The Oak

of 1949 presents . . .

Foreword

In September as we on the Oak Staff tried to choose an appropriate theme for the 1949 Oak, we thought back over the colorful past of Adamson's athletic teams, school dances, carnivals, and other varied activities. We wished to honor some outstanding part of our student body by personifying them in our theme. As we pondered the question, we remembered a group who has won many honors for our school in the past, and whose record this year has surpassed our fondest hopes— our SPEECH and DRAMATICS DEPARTMENTS.

There are no cheering sections, no bands playing, no batons twirling, when they go on the field, but in the past, in the present, and in the future, they have been and will always be able to carry the ball over for a touchdown. To the SPEECH and DRAMATICS DEPARTMENTS we sincerely dedicate our theme.

—The Editor

To MISS HEDDE for her undying effort toward higher attainment in drama and public speaking; for her spirit of optimism through many senior plays; for her attitude of unselfishness in the rendering of countless services to our school; for the admiration and affection she has inspired in all of us, we most humbly dedicate the Oak of 1949.
